Citizens of Colombia who are admitted to any graduate degree program at Harvard University are eligible to apply for the Fondo Colombia-Harvard Scholarship for Colombian students.

Scholarship recipients must be enrolled in full-time, in-residence degree programs which run the during the regular academic year. Students applying to part-time, summer-only, or on-line programs are not eligible for consideration.

Candidates are evaluated on the basis of merit and financial need and must apply for consideration before entering the U.S. and prior to the start of their Harvard programs. Candidates must apply to one of Harvard University’s graduate or professional schools independently of this Scholarship in order to be considered for an award. Candidates do not need to know their admissions status in order to apply for this award. Admission to the University does not guarantee a scholarship award.

Scholarships are awarded for one academic year with the possibility of renewal for a subsequent year. Preference will be given to students who are also residents of Colombia. Recipients are expected to return to Colombia to contribute to the country following the completion of their degree studies.

The online application requires the following materials:

- Application form.
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae.
- Statement of Purpose.
  - In a short essay, not to exceed 1,000 words, please discuss your plan of study at Harvard University and how it relates to your career goals.

The deadline to submit the online application and all supplemental materials is March 1, 2022. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.

Questions about the academic programs at any Harvard graduate or professional school, or the admissions procedures or guidelines, should be directed to the admissions offices of the school of your interest. Links to each Harvard School may be found on the Harvard University homepage.

Questions about the application, guidelines, or eligibility requirements of these scholarships should be directed to the Committee on General Scholarships
