Guidelines for Hong Kong Jockey Club Graduate Scholarships at Harvard University Academic Year 2024-2025

The Hong Kong Jockey Club Scholarships support residents of Hong Kong who are enrolling in a full-time, in-residence master's or doctoral degree program in public-service related programs at:

- Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
- Harvard Graduate School of Design
- Harvard Divinity School
- Harvard Graduate School of Education
- Harvard John A. Paulson School of Engineering and Applied Sciences
- Harvard Kennedy School
- Harvard Law School
- Harvard Medical School
- Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

Recipients will be selected for their outstanding intellect and character, commitment to service, and potential for leadership. The fellowship will cover tuition and health fees as well as a living stipend for each academic year of the degree, up to three years. The fellowship is made possible by the generosity of the Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust.

Fellowship candidates must apply to and be accepted to an academic degree program at the university independently from this fellowship application. Admissions applications should be submitted prior to submitting a fellowship application. Candidates do not need to know their admissions status in order to apply for this award. Admission to the university does not guarantee a fellowship award. All applicants who wish to be considered for financial aid, in the event that they do not receive a Hong Kong Jockey Club Graduate Scholarship, must follow the separate procedures and deadlines outlined by the Harvard school in which they hope to enroll.

Candidates must apply for this Fellowship prior to the start of their academic program. Students currently enrolled at Harvard are not eligible to apply.

Fellowship recipients must be enrolled in full-time, in-residence degree programs which run during the regular academic year. Students applying to part-time, summer-only, or on-line programs are not eligible for consideration.

The online application requires the following materials:

- Application form.
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae.
- Statement of Purpose - In a short essay, not to exceed 1,000 words, please discuss your education, work, and service in Hong Kong, your plan of study at Harvard University, and your career goals.

The deadline to submit the online application and all supplemental materials is March 1, 2024. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.

Questions about the academic programs at any Harvard graduate or professional school, or the admissions procedures or guidelines, should be directed to the admissions offices of the school of your interest. Links to each Harvard School may be found on the Harvard University homepage.
